liberated Shusha's poetic expression

As a legendary place, cradle of culture, Shusha has been one of the leading themes of Azerbaijani literature. The tragedy of Karabakh cast a shadow on the examples of literature written about Shusha, and this heavenly place, where we always found comfort and peace, became our longing fire for nearly 30 years. After 30 years, the cries of the Supreme Commander-in-Chief "Shusha, you are ours, Shusha we have returned, Shusha we will revive you again" became one of the main themes of Azerbaijani poetry. Free Shusha songs decorated our verses.

Nariman Hasanzadeh, Vahid Aziz, Gulu Aqsas, Asad Jahangir, Hijran, Musa Alakbarli, Barat Vusal, Mrs. Ismayilgizi, Rafiq Yusifoglu, Elkhan Zal Karakhanli, Faig Huseynbeyli, etc. our poets wrote about the 30-year wound of free Shusha, her freedom, her beauty that will not be lost, and that she is still the main crown of Azerbaijan. In Nariman Hasanzade's poem entitled "Mr. Commander-in-Chief, welcome to you", his hard work in the liberation of our Shusha is highlighted along with gratitude and respect for our President. In particular, the author aims to bring the President's 44-day war history to the whole world.
