"I can't live without Karabakh" Efendiev, whose dreams are came true

The monuments of artistic words created by the people's writer, laureate of the State Prize, Honored Art Worker Ilyas Efendiyev have become a living history of the history of Azerbaijani literature and the history of Azerbaijani dramaturgy that continues today. Ilyas Efendiyev's creative horizons are very wide and colorful. In this diversity, in the writer's art world, the theme of Karabakh, where he grew up with his eyes wide open, where his charming nature is highlighted, has a special place.

Yashar Garayev, a prominent literary scholar, rightly wrote that "there are seven "Karabagname" - classic documents about the history of Karabakh. I consider that the work by Ilyas Efendiyev to be the eighth " Karabagname"! ". Indeed, Ilyas Efendiyev, who glorified the nature of Karabakh, Shusha fortress, Isa spring, Topkhana forest are rare beauties and historical monuments of the fertile Karabakh land with great artistry, gave Azerbaijani literature artistic, literary and eternal - the eighth "Karabagname".

Some time later, when I was reading the last short story "The Tale of Sadiqjan with the Khan's daughter Gulsenubar" published in "Gunay" newspaper, I remembered my last meeting with the writer Sadiqjan Gulsenubar..." Literary critic Amin Efendiyev, who remembers the writer Ilyas Efendiyev, wrote: "We are absolutely sure that in the near future we are will celebrate the victory of the war with great pomp. There is no doubt that he will organize this festival in the Cidir plain, and the director of the celebrations, Ilyas Efendiyev, will invite his heroes there, in order to accuse the Armenian fascists and the sides. As in 1945-1946, German fascists were accused in the city of Nuremberg. In 1945, G. Gering killed himself, and R. Ley hanged himself. I absolutely do not believe that any of the perpetrators of the Karabakh tragedy would kill themselves beforehand. It would be ridiculous to expect such masculinity from them!

These days, we are experiencing the joy of Victory given to us by our Commander-in-Chief Ilham Aliyev and the glorious Azerbaijani army. May the souls of our martyrs and those who left the world longing for Karabakh rejoice, that Karabakh is ours! Karabakh is Azerbaijan!
